the names of persons and amount of money said of have been collected by Shaw and not accounted for. This statement was made out by witness, by order of Mr. Schenck, and was dated 21st April, 1841.

Cross-camined.—Mr. Hallesbeck, the brother inlaw of Shaw, came to Mr. Schenck to try to have the maner between them compromised, and Mr. Schenck in desist from further prosecution if Mr. Schenck would give him (Mr. Schenck) up the Hallenbeck would give him (Mr. Schenck) up the Hallenbeck would give him (Mr. Schenck) up the bote for upwards of $800, he (Hallenbeck) held against Schenck, and witness thought the affair would have been settled, as witness advised if the money should be paid. The net amount of defalcations then at far as known, was bout $750. Witness afterwards exhibited by saying that Mr. Schenck offered to take an $800 note of Hallenbeck as far as it went to ward satisfying the amount of Shaw's defalcations. Witness afterwards satisfying the amount of Shaw's defalcations were paid. Mr. Schenck's claim embraced the $125 that Shaw held against him, and which Schenck paid at maturity in the first of the Best Quality—Approved Popular Remedies, Leeches, Esgins and French Perfunctional and with the collection of the Best Quality—Approved Popular Remedies, Leeches, Esgins and French Perfunctional and with the collection of the Best Quality—Approved Popular Remedies, Leeches, Esgins and French Perfunctional and with the collection of the Best Quality—Approved Popular Remedies, Leeches, Esgins and French Perfunctional and with the collection of the Best Quality—Approved Popular Remedies, Leeches, Esgins and French Perfunctional and with the collection of the Best Quality—Approved Popular Remedies, Leeches, Esgins and French Perfunctional and with the collection of the Best Quality—Approved Popular Remedies, Leeches, Esgins and French Perfunctional and with the collection of the Best Quality Approved Popular Remedies, Leeches, Esgins and French Perfunctional and with the collection of the Best Quality Approved Po against bim, and which Scheock paid at maturity in June last. Messis, Dayton & Saxiox—Gentlemen—I have examined your valuable little musical publication," The Young Cheir," and feel gratified to be able to express my maconditional approbation of the same. It is just the thing wanted for juvenile classes; and I hope it may be widely and examispedly patronized.

I am respectfully yours, S. B. POND.
Late vocal Leavier of the N.Y. Sacred Music Society.
Messis, Dayton & Saxiox—I have received the copy of "The Young Coor," by W. B. Bradbury and C. W. Sanders, and I have examined it thoroughly and with great pleasure. The music is chaste and simple, two great excellencies in a musical work. The arrangement is well doughed and executed, and I know of no work of the kind better calculated to do good. The work also contains emough of the "Elements of music," to answer all purposes for youth.

I doubt not but it will afford astisfaction to schools for children and youth, and I hope it will obtain a general use.
